

VAN BASCI – P

Van Basci p is an insecticidal protein of Bacillus thuringiensis kurstaki which is an ecofriendly bio pesticide, effective against caterpillars. The product contains insecticidal protein cry1A and 2A, the combined use of these proteins will be ideal for management of pest and thereby promotes the growth of the plant.

Van Basci-P is available in two different formulations.

Van Basci-P liquid formulation

Van Basci-P powder formulation

Technical composition:

Fermented solids, active ingredients, and inert materials.

Van Basic-P's role in the plant.

- Protein/ Spores-Act on multiple target sites and effectively on target pests, thereby maintaining the plant health.
- Surfactant/dispersion agent- natural anionic surfactant used for its microbial activity and preservation properties.
- Wetting & spreading agents- Lower the surface tension of the water and allow to spread and penetrate.
- Stabiliser - Helps in increased shelf life.

Dosage:

Bassital Suspension- 15ml/ Litre

Bassital Powder- 156gm/ Litre.

Recommended Crops:

All crops infected by lepidopteran larvae; like Cole crops, corn, chili, tomato etc.

